PREFACE

The 2004 edition of the Wyoming Sales, Use and Lodging Tax Revenue Report is a compendium of detailed excise tax information. This publication contains sales and use tax collection information by one-digit Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) code. In addition, sales tax collections for the retail sector, itemized by sub-sector component, are provided. Also included in this report, are yearly lodging tax collections by local entity. As a point of clarification, sales and use tax collections by SIC code reflect the taxable sales made within a particular industrial sector, not the taxable purchases made within that sector.

The Department of Revenue changed their sales and use tax processing system in March 1997. The collection data are specifically based on "county of sale" as reported by the vendor, rather than the vendor's business location. Therefore, some shifts in distribution may have occurred among certain counties and between sales and use tax collections. The change in computer systems may also have been a contributing factor to the increase in sales tax collections between fiscal year 1997 and 1998.

This report spans the activity for fiscal years 1993-2004 for sales tax, and fiscal years 1999-2004 for use tax collections. Lodging tax information is provided for fiscal years 1993-2004 (the Wyoming State Government fiscal year extends from July 1 through June 30).

The data were provided by the Wyoming Department of Revenue, and were compiled for publication by the Economic Analysis Division, Department of Administration and Information, 1807 Capitol Avenue, Cheyenne, WY 82002-0060, Phone: (307) 777-7504, E-mail: ead@state.wy.us.

INTRODUCTION

Sales and use tax collections are two principal sources of revenue to state and local governments.

However, their importance does not stop there. These two revenue sources, when surveyed over time, provide a valuable indication of both economic progress and activity at the state and county levels.

Lodging tax collections provide revenue primarily to cities, towns, and counties. This valuable economic indicator is particularly useful for identifying and monitoring tourism activity and trends.

The reporting of sales and use tax collections is based upon the 1987 Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) code, developed by the Federal Office of Management and Budget. Under this system, a business is classified by primary activity, determined by principal product, or group of products produced, distributed, and/or services rendered. Each sector classification is briefly described in the glossary found on page 104.

SALES TAX

Wyoming has had a sales and use tax since 1935. Historically, the revenue from this tax was shared between state government and local governments within the county of origin at rates of 66.67 percent and 33.33 percent, respectively. However, a statute modification effective July 1, 1989 through June 30, 1992, reduced the state share to 63.33 percent and raised the county share to 36.67 percent. Beginning July 1, 1992, the sales tax distribution was modified again, allocating 65.0 percent to state government and 35 percent to the county of origin. This revised allocation remained in effect through June 30, 1993.

From 1967 through June of 1993, the state-imposed sales tax rate was 3 percent. On July 1, 1993, the state-imposed sales tax rate was raised to 4 percent, and the distribution formula was modified to allocate 72.0 percent to state government, and the remaining 28 percent to the county of origin. Since July 1, 2002, the state share reduced to 70.5 percent.

The State's share of the sales tax revenue is distributed to the General Fund. The significance of this tax is evident in the graph and table shown on pages 5, 9 and 10. The portion returned to the counties and municipalities is distributed based on population.

Beginning in 1973, Wyoming counties were granted the option to impose an additional 1 percent sales tax through public election. During fiscal year 2004, all counties except Fremont, Goshen, Park, Sublette, and Washakie were imposing this optional sales tax. The optional sales tax revenue, less administrative costs, is returned to the county of origin.

In addition to the aforementioned county optional tax, any county, through public election, may impose an additional excise tax of up to 1 percent on retail sales made within the county. The revenue generated from this tax is designated solely for the planning, construction, furnishing, equipping, and debt servicing for any capital improvement project as authorized through public election. This tax is referred to as the 1 percent capital facilities option tax. During fiscal year 2004, Albany, Carbon, Goshen, Laramie, Niobrara, Park, Sheridan, Teton, and Uinta counties were imposing the 1 percent capital facilities option tax, while Sweetwater County chose to impose 0.5 percent. A table of effective tax rates can be found on pages 11-13.

To derive an estimate of county gross sales, the specific county tax collection can be divided by the corresponding tax rate. However, this method suffices as only an approximate indicator of gross sales and does not include any non-taxable sales. (See pages 14-15 for a listing of all taxable events and exemptions.) Further, because county option taxes originate and expire at varying times, county sales tax rates can fluctuate from year to year. When measuring performance over time, the inclusion of these optional revenues results in statistical variance. The table and graph on page 20 displays only the total state imposed sales tax collections, and annual percent change for fiscal years 1993 through 2004.

USE TAX

State use tax is imposed on purchases made outside a taxing jurisdiction for first use, storage, or other consumption within that jurisdiction. Thus, the use tax prevents sales tax avoidance, or payment of a lesser tax rate by making purchases outside of the taxing jurisdiction where first use, storage, or other consumption will occur. Wyoming taxing jurisdictions are the State of Wyoming, and/or each Wyoming county.

Use tax is a complement of sales tax. Effective January 1, 1981, the adoption of an optional sales tax required a change in the use tax rate of equal amount. State use tax is shared between state government and the county of origin on the same distribution basis as sales tax. Therefore, the revised rate and allocation, as mentioned earlier in the sales tax description, applies here as well. The table and graph on page 82 display only the total state imposed use tax collections and the annual percent change for fiscal years 1993 through 2004.

LODGING TAX

Cities, towns and counties, by voter approval, may impose an excise tax of up to 4 percent on all sleeping accommodations for guests staying less than 30 days. This tax extends to mobile accommodations such as tents, trailers, and campers, as well.

All collections, less a 2 percent state administrative cost during the first year the tax is imposed, and a 1 percent thereafter, are distributed to the cities, towns and counties of origin. At least 90 percent of the tax distributions must be used to promote travel and tourism within the county, city or town imposing the tax. The amount remaining, not to exceed 10 percent of the total amount distributed, may be used for general revenue within the governmental entity imposing the tax.

SECTION I

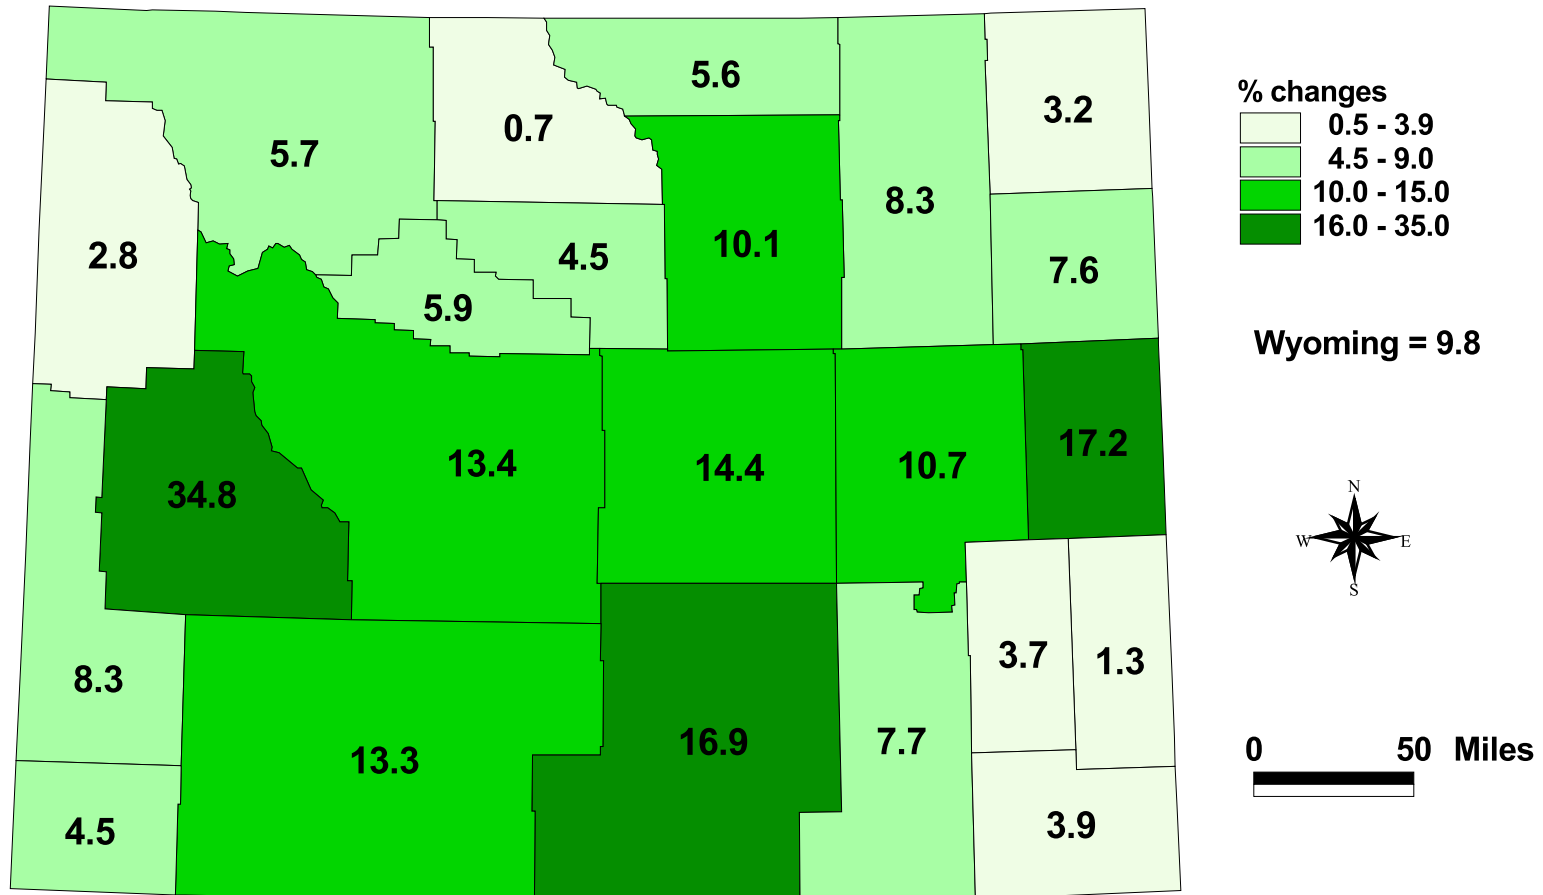

SALES TAX COLLECTIONS

* Includes state sales taxes plus all local optional sales taxes

Percent Change in Sales Tax Collections by County: FY2003 - FY2004

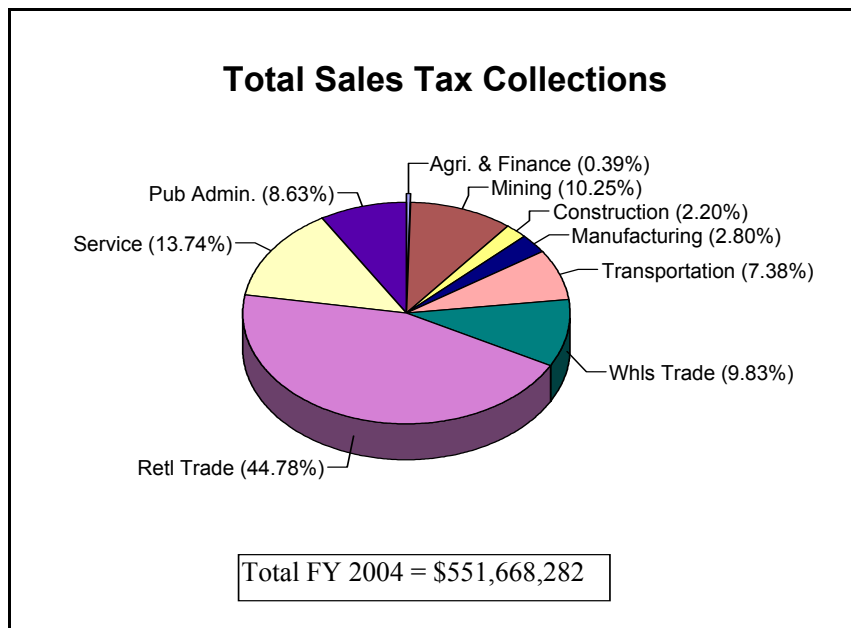

(only state imposed 4% sales tax are included)

SUMMARY OF SALES TAX COLLECTIONS

Total sales tax collections for fiscal year 2004, at $551.7 million, increased 9.5 percent from previous level. This expansion followed last year's slight contraction. Collections in 7 of the 10 major industrial sectors were above previous year levels (see Glossary for the explanation of each sector). Reversed from last year's trend, the mining sector realized a substantial growth of 43.4 percent. Collections from the retail trade sector, which reflects consumers' daily spending, were boosted in fiscal year 2004 to $247.1 million. This represented an increase of 15.1 percent from a year earlier. The retail trade sector is the largest of the industrial sectors. The public administration sector also recorded a significant expansion of 13.0 percent. The finance and real estate sector, though the smallest, climbed 73.1 percent. The second largest sector, services, experienced a decrease of 3.0 percent. The collections reported in the public administration sector were primarily comprised of taxes generated through automobile sales.

Annual sales tax collections in all of the state's 23 counties increased over previous year levels, except Laramie due to the three-month suspension of the county optional tax. Note: data users must be aware of the aberrancy when comparing the collections between fiscal years before and after 1997 for counties. As indicated in the table on page 22, the collections in the “Out of State” category showed zero since fiscal year 1998. The reason for this, as mentioned earlier, is the collection data have been specifically based on “county of sale” reported by vendors, instead of vendors’ business location. This change resulted from the adoption of a new sales/use tax system by the Department of Revenue that has been in use since March 1997. Therefore, collection amounts that were typically reported in the “Out of State” category were allocated into the rightful counties based on the location of purchase.

Carbon, Park, and Sublette counties revealed the most staggering increases of at least 28 percent from fiscal year 2003 level. Converse, Fremont, Johnson, Natrona, Niobrara, and Sweetwater counties also experienced yearly increases of over 10.0 percent, respectively. Part of the increases in Carbon and Park counties were contributed by the impositions of optional tax. Mining related activities were the principal drivers leading the increase in almost all those counties, resulting in a tremendous raise of sales tax collection in retail trade sector.

Annual sales tax collections increased moderately at lower than 4 percent in five counties, Big Horn, Crook, Goshen, Platte, and Teton, respectively. The manufacturing sector was the main common drag for their overall slow increases. A map on page 17 shows the percent change in state imposed 4% sales tax collections by county between fiscal year 2003 and 2004.

SECTION III

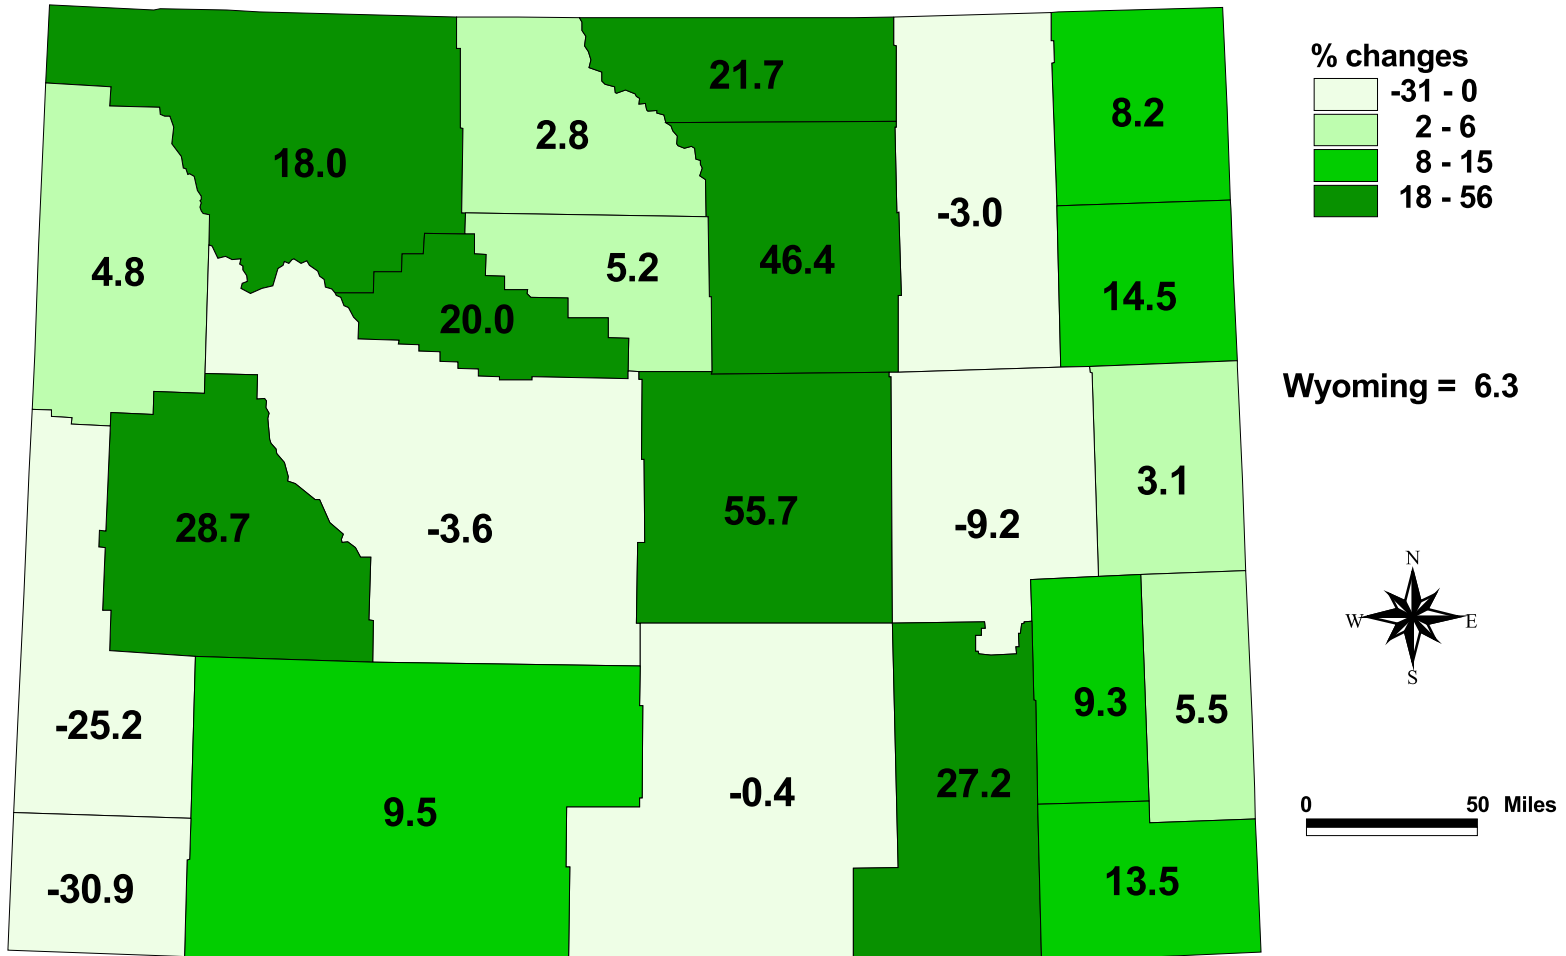

USE TAX COLLECTIONS

* Includes state use taxes plus all local optional use taxes

Percent Change in Use Tax Collections by County: FY2003 - FY2004

(only state imposed 4% use tax are included)

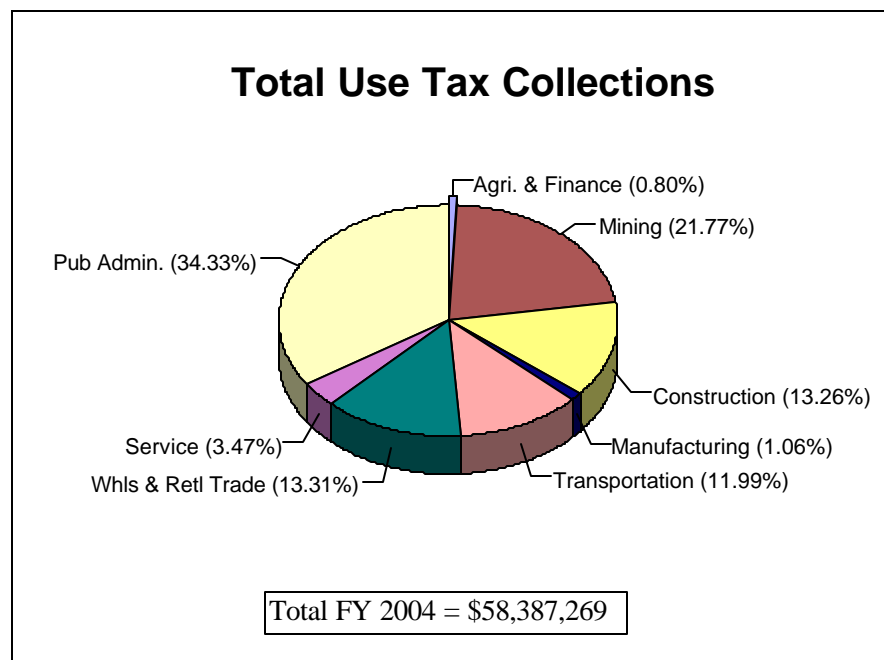

SUMMARY OF USE TAX COLLECTIONS

Use tax collections totaled $58.4 million during fiscal year 2004, an increase of 6.4 percent from year earlier level. Six of the 9 major sectors (wholesale and retail trade sectors are combined for use tax reporting) realized increases over fiscal year 2003 levels. Use tax collections usually fluctuate considerably from year to year, and from one sector to another. The public administration is the largest of the industrial sectors in use tax and it takes up approximately 30 percent of total collections. Unlike collections for sales tax, the goods producing sectors (mining, construction, and manufacturing) typically cover a large portion in use tax collections.

The finance and real estate sector exhibited the largest increase of over 700 percent.

However, the mining and the public administration sectors showed the largest expansions of over $2 million, each, in terms of absolute amount. The agriculture, manufacturing, and transportation sectors suffered declines of at least 20 percent, respectively.

Use tax collections reported in the public administration sector were primarily comprised of taxes generated through automobile purchases made out of the state.

Annual total use tax collections for 18 counties increased over previous year levels. Users should be cautious when making comparisons of county use tax collections between the periods before and after fiscal year 1997, due to the change in the allocation of out-of-state collections. Again, the amount in the category of "Out of State" was allocated to the rightful counties, based on location of purchase.

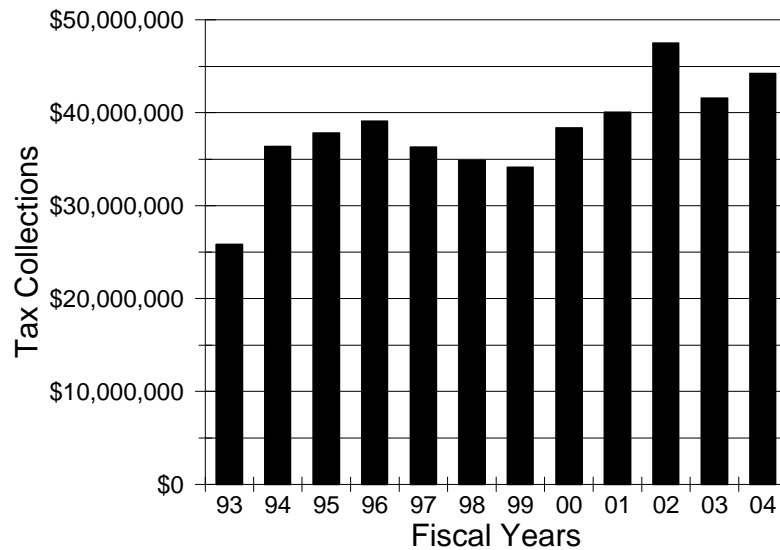

Johnson, Natrona, and Park counties revealed the most significant increases, over 40.0 percent each, in comparison with the collections recorded during fiscal year 2003. The increases in mining activities contributed to the growth for all three counties, public administration sector also increased substantially in both Johnson and Park counties. Albany, Hot Springs, Sheridan, and Sublette counties had weighty gains of 20 percent or more, respectively, over the previous year levels.

Use tax collections declined from year earlier levels in 5 counties. Lincoln and Uinta counties suffered the most contraction of 25.2 and 30.9 percent, respectively. While the lags for both counties were mainly caused by the transportation sector, the mining sector in Lincoln and the construction sector in Uinta also decreased significantly.

Growth rates for use tax collections over the past twelve years can be found on page 82. Only the 3 percent and 4 percent state use tax collections (no county optional taxes) were used for this comparison. The map in page 79 shows the percent change in state imposed 4% use tax collections by county between fiscal year 2003 and 2004.

SECTION IV

LODGING TAX COLLECTIONS

* lodging tax imposition in Teton County was revoked beginning in FY 1996

Percent Change in Lodging Tax Collections by County: FY2003 - FY2004

SUMMARY OF LODGING TAX COLLECTIONS

Total lodging tax collections for fiscal year 2004, at $4.7 million, were up 15.3 percent from the $4.1 million collected in the previous year. However, most of the increases were contributed by the changes of lodging tax rates. Starting on April 1, 2003, four counties have increased their lodging tax rates. Albany County raised the tax rate to 4 percent from 3 percent. Converse and Laramie counties, as well as Evanston city changed their lodging tax rates to 3 percent from 2 percent, respectively. As a result, the tax collections from those counties jumped over earlier year level.

For other counties, Lincoln and Sweetwater demonstrated substantial increases of over 21.0 percent, each. Fremont, Natrona, and Sublette counties also recorded at least 11 percent rise, respectively. The collections in Park County, the largest in the state, totaled $1.05 million in fiscal year 2004, showing an increase of 2.1 percent over previous year level. Overall, increases over fiscal year 2003 levels were realized in 17 counties statewide. Crook, Goshen, and Platte counties experienced over 6 percent declines, each, during the same period.

The 2 percent lodging tax imposition in Teton County was revoked beginning on July 1, 1995. The map in page 99 shows the percent change in lodging tax collections by county between fiscal year 2003 and 2004.
