PREFACE

The 2008 edition of the Wyoming Sales, Use, and Lodging Tax Revenue Report is a compendium of detailed excise tax information. This publication contains sales and use tax collection information categorized by North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) for Wyoming and its twenty-three counties. In addition, sales tax collections for the retail trade sector, which are itemized by sub-sector components, and for the accommodation and food services sector are provided in the report. Also included in this publication are yearly lodging tax collections by county and local entity. As a point of clarification, sales and use tax collections by NAICS codes reflect the taxable sales made within a particular industrial sector, NOT the taxable purchases made by that sector.

This report spans total sales and use tax collections activity by state and county for fiscal years 2006-2008, both for the state-imposed 4% taxes and the total taxes which include local optional taxes (Wyoming State Government's fiscal year extends from July 1 through June 30). Since fiscal year 2004, data have been tabulated by NAICS code instead of by Standard Industrial Classification (SIC). These two classifications are different and are not directly comparable. Lodging tax information is provided for fiscal years 1997-2008.

The data was provided by the Wyoming Department of Revenue, and were compiled for publication by the Economic Analysis Division, Department of Administration and Information, 1807 Capitol Avenue, Suite 206, Cheyenne, WY 82002-0060, Phone: (307) 777-7504, e-mail: ead@state.wy.us.

INTRODUCTION

Sales and use tax collections are the two principal sources of revenue for state and local governments in Wyoming. These two revenue sources, when tabulated over time, also provide a valuable indication of both economic progress and activity at the state and county levels.

Lodging tax collections provide revenue primarily to cities, towns, and counties. This valuable economic indicator is particularly useful in identifying and monitoring tourism activity and trends in these local areas.

The reporting of sales and use tax collections is based upon the 2002 North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) code, developed by the Federal Office of Management and Budget. Under this system, a business is classified by primary activity, which is determined by principal product, or group of products produced, distributed, and/or services rendered. Each sector classification is briefly described in the glossary located on page 69.

SALES TAX

Wyoming has implemented a sales and use tax since 1935. Historically, the revenue from this tax was shared between state government and local governments within the county-of-origin at rates of 66.67 percent and 33.33 percent, respectively. However, a statute modification effective July 1, 1989 through June 30, 1992, reduced the state share to 63.33 percent and raised the county share to 36.67 percent. Beginning July 1, 1992, the sales tax distribution was modified once again, allocating 65.0 percent to state government and 35.0 percent to the county of origin. This revised allocation remained in effect through June 30, 1993.

From 1967 through June of 1993, the state-imposed sales tax rate was 3 percent. On July 1, 1993, the state-imposed sales tax rate was raised to 4 percent, and the distribution formula was modified to allocate 72.0 percent to state government, and the remaining 28 percent to the county of origin. The state share was reduced to 70.5 percent between July 1, 2002 and July 1, 2004, and it was further lowered to 69.0 percent since fiscal year 2005.

The State's share of the sales tax revenue is distributed to the General Fund. The graph on page 4, and the table located on page 8 provide a visual depiction of the significance of this tax. The portion of sales tax revenue returned to the counties and municipalities is distributed based upon decennial census population.

Beginning in 1973, Wyoming counties were granted the option to impose an additional one percent sales tax approved through public election. As of January 1, 2008, all counties except for Fremont, Park, Sublette, and Washakie were imposing this optional sales tax. The optional sales tax revenue, less administrative costs, is returned to the county of origin.

In addition to the aforementioned county optional tax, any county, through public election, may impose an additional excise tax of up to one percent on retail sales made within the county. This optional excise tax is referred to as the 1 percent capital facilities option tax. The revenue generated from this tax is designated solely for the planning, construction, furnishing, equipping, and debt servicing for any capital improvement project as authorized through public election. As of January 1, 2008, Albany, Crook, Fremont, Laramie, Niobrara, Park, Sheridan, Sweetwater, Teton, and Washakie counties were imposing 1 percent, while Campbell County chose to impose a 0.25 percent optional tax. Since April 2007, counties could impose another one percent sales tax for economic development purpose. So far, only Goshen County imposes 0.25 percent rate for this particular tax. A table of effective tax rates by county is located on page 9.

To derive an estimate of county gross taxable sales, the specific county tax collection can be divided by the corresponding tax rate. However, this method suffices as only an approximate indicator of gross sales and does not include any non-taxable sales. (See pages 10-11 for a list of all taxable events and exemptions). Further, because county option taxes originate and expire at varying times, county sales tax rates can fluctuate from year-to-year. When measuring performance over time, the inclusion of these optional revenues results in statistical variances. Therefore, only the state imposed 4 percent tax collections should be used for the purpose of year to year comparisons. The table and graph on page 16 display only the state imposed sales tax collections and the annual percent change for fiscal years 1997 through 2008.

USE TAX

A state use tax is imposed on purchases made outside a taxing jurisdiction for first use, storage, or other consumption within that jurisdiction. Thus, the use tax prevents sales tax avoidance, or payment of a lesser tax rate by making purchases outside of the taxing jurisdiction where first use, storage, or other consumption will occur. Wyoming's taxing jurisdictions are the State of Wyoming, and/or each county.

Use tax is a complement of sales tax. Effective January 1, 1981, the adoption of an optional sales tax requires a change in the use tax rate of equal amount. State use tax collections are shared between state government and the county-of-origin on the same distribution basis as sales tax. Therefore, the revised rate and allocation, as mentioned earlier in the sales tax description, applies for the use tax as well. Again, for legitimate comparisons between one year and another, only the state imposed 4 percent use tax data should be applied. The table and graph on page 49 display only the state imposed use tax collections and the annual percent change for fiscal years 1997 through 2008.

LODGING TAX

Cities, towns, and counties, by voter approval, may impose an excise tax of up to 4 percent on all sleeping accommodations for guests staying less than thirty days. This tax also extends to mobile accommodations such as tents, trailers, and campers.

All lodging tax collections, less a 2 percent state administrative cost during the first year the tax is imposed, and a 1 percent thereafter, are distributed to the cities, towns, and counties of origin. At least 90 percent of the tax distributions must be used to promote travel and tourism within the county, city, or town that is imposing the tax. The remaining amount, not to exceed 10 percent of the total amount distributed, may be used for general revenue within the governmental entity imposing the tax.

SECTION I

SALES TAX COLLECTIONS

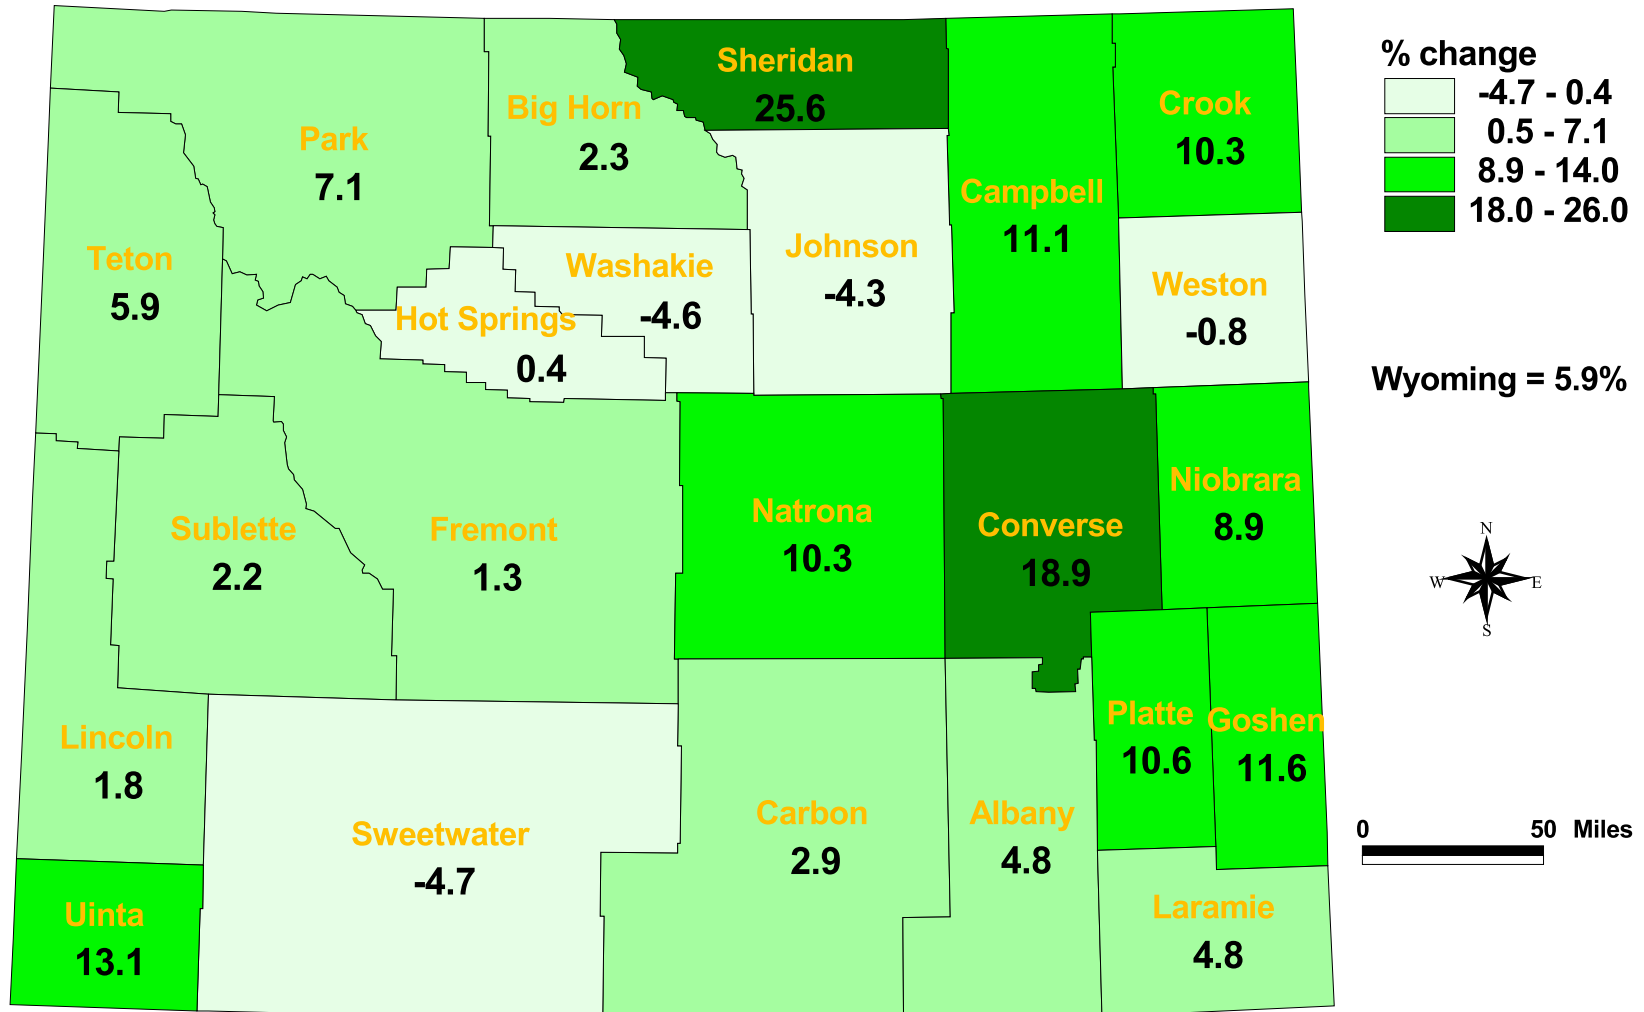

* Includes state sales taxes plus all local optional sales taxes

Source: State of Wyoming, Department of Revenue

Percent Change in Sales Tax Collections by County: FY2007 - FY2008

(only state imposed 4% sales tax is included)

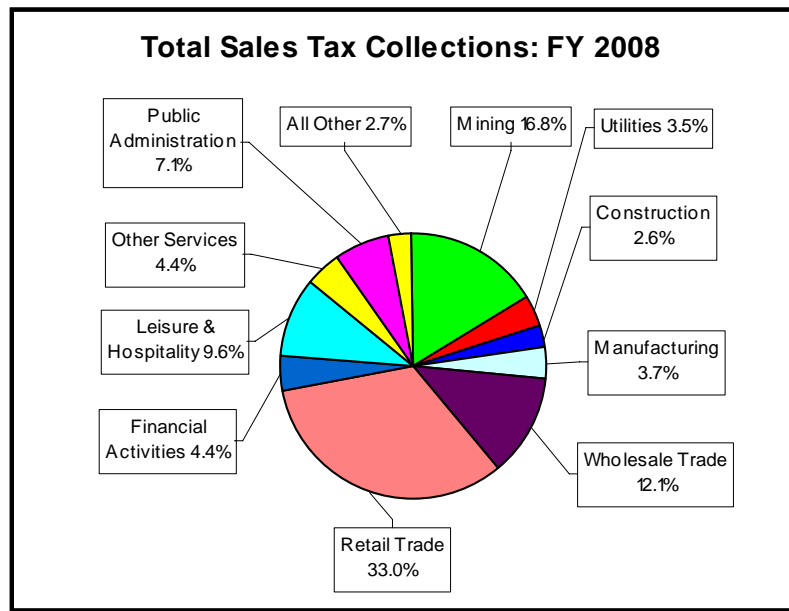

SUMMARY OF SALES TAX COLLECTIONS

Total sales tax collections for fiscal year 2008, $849.2 million, increased 6.3 percent from the previous year level. The annual growth rate for the state-imposed 4% sales tax collections was 5.9 percent, down from the 9.3 percent growth rate recorded in fiscal year 2007. Because locally imposed optional taxes often change during a fiscal year, an accurate comparison should only use the state-imposed 4% taxes to reflect change in taxable sales over time. Under the North American Industry Classification System (NAICS), sales tax collections in most major tax contribution industrial sectors were above previous year levels (see the Glossary on page 69 for an explanation of each sector).

The wholesale trade sector demonstrated the most substantial increase of 18.2

percent during the year. Together with retail trade, these two trade sectors contributed to over 80 percent of total annual sales tax increase. The construction and financial activities sectors also had significant increases of 9.9 and 9.1 percent, respectively. Collections from the retail trade sector, which reflects consumers' daily spending, reached $209.1 million in fiscal year 2008. This represented an increase of 9.3 percent from a year earlier. The retail trade sector is the largest of the industrial sectors in sales tax collections. Reversing the trend of recent years, the mining sector experienced a decline of 1.7 percent, and the manufacturing sector had the largest contraction of 12.5 percent. The State does not impose sales tax on mining production itself, but on services such as setting and cementing of production casing during the oil and gas production casing phase; and contract based digging and crushing, purchase or leasing, and repair of equipment for coal production. The utilities sector also experienced a decline of 3.3 percent from the previous year collections.

Despite the slowdown in the mining sector, annual sales tax collections in 20 of Wyoming's 23 counties increased over previous year levels. Sheridan and Converse counties revealed the most staggering increases of 25.6 percent and 18.9 percent, respectively, from the fiscal year 2007 level (see graph on page 13). This growth was mainly due to heightened activities associated with natural gas production, which caused a tremendous ascent in sales tax collections in the mining and retail trade sectors. Campbell, Crook, Goshen, Natrona, Platte, and Uinta counties each also experienced double-digit yearly increases. Nearly all of these counties recorded substantial growth in the wholesale trade and/or retail trade industries. Other industrial sectors, such as mining for Uinta and Crook counties, and public administration for Crook, Natrona, and Platte counties contributed to the growth in sales tax collections.

After tremendous increases in the past few years, the sales tax collections in Johnson and Sweetwater counties suffered declines of 4.3 percent and 4.7 percent, respectively, from the previous year level. Sales tax collections also decreased in Washakie (-4.6%) and Weston (-0.8%) counties. A map on page 13 shows the percent change in state imposed 4% sales tax collections by county between fiscal year 2007 and 2008.

Percent Change in Use Tax Collections by County: FY2007- FY2008

(only state imposed 4% use tax is included)

SUMMARY OF USE TAX COLLECTIONS

Use tax collections totaled $124.2 million during fiscal year 2008, an increase of 9.8 percent from the previous year level. However, the annual growth rate for the state-imposed 4% use tax collections was 11.2 percent, down from the 33.0 percent growth rate recorded in fiscal year 2007. Because locally imposed optional taxes often change during a fiscal year, an accurate comparison should only use the state-imposed 4% taxes to reflect change in taxable sales over time. Eleven of the fifteen NAICS sectors realized increases over fiscal year 2007 levels. Use tax collections usually fluctuate considerably from year to year in many sectors. Previously, the public administration was the largest industrial sector in use tax collections, but it has been replaced by the mining sector since fiscal year 2006. Together, these two sectors comprise over 55 percent of total use tax collections. Unlike collections for sales taxes, which are usually dominated by the retail trade, and leisure & hospitality sectors, it is the goods producing sectors such as mining and construction that typically cover a large portion of the use tax collections.

The transportation and warehousing sector exhibited the largest over the year increase, 60.4 percent. Together with the mining and manufacturing sectors, these three industries contributed over 95 percent to the overall expansion in use tax collections for fiscal year 2008. The construction, wholesale trade, retail trade, and other services sectors suffered declines. Use tax collections reported in the public administration sector were primarily comprised of taxes generated through automobile purchases made out-of-state.

Annual total use tax collections for fourteen of Wyoming's counties increased over previous year levels. Fremont County revealed the most substantial increases, more than doubled, in comparison with the collections for fiscal year 2007. Converse, Natrona, Sublette, and Weston counties also enjoyed significant growth in use tax collections of around 30 percent, respectively. The increases in the mining sector contributed to the growth for almost all these counties. Campbell and Sweetwater counties had notable gains of around 20 percent, respectively, over previous year levels.

Use tax collections declined in nine of Wyoming's counties. Albany, Big Horn, Carbon, Park, and Washakie counties suffered a contraction of over 20 percent, respectively, in fiscal year 2008.

Growth rates for use tax collections over the past twelve years can be found on page 49. Only the 4 percent state use tax collections (no county optional taxes) were used for this comparison. The map on page 46 shows the percent change in the state imposed 4 percent use tax collections by county between fiscal years 2007 and 2008.

LODGING TAX COLLECTIONS

Percent Change in Lodging Tax Collections by County: FY2007 - FY2008

SUMMARY OF LODGING TAX COLLECTIONS

Total lodging tax collections, at $7.8 million for fiscal year 2008, were up substantially from the $6.8 million collected in the previous year, or 14.4 percent. Following the previous year's growth rate of 16.8 percent, this was the third year in a row with double-digit increase. All counties except one with a lodging tax imposition experienced expansions in lodging tax collections; among which 10 counties recorded at least double-digit increases. Washakie County's lodging taxes recorded the largest jump, nearly double the amount from one year earlier. Converse, Laramie, Lincoln, and Niobrara counties also demonstrated substantial increases in percentage terms, 23.0 percent or more during the year. Since April 1, 2007, the lodging tax rate was raised from 2% to 4% in Washakie County and Kemmerer City in Lincoln County, while the rate was changed to 4% from 3% in Laramie County. Carbon, Crook, Fremont, Natrona, and Uinta counties also experienced at least a 14 percent rise, respectively, in lodging tax collections.

Some of the lodging taxes in certain counties were not attributed to typical tourists, rather by out-of-state mining workers who occupied blocks of lodging spaces on a regular basis due to the lack of housing availability in local markets. However, the tourism industry also registered a robust year once again. The lodging tax collections in Park County, the largest in the state, totaled $1.38 million in fiscal year 2008, showing an increase of 9.7 percent from the previous year level. Although there is not a lodging tax imposition, the sales tax collections on lodging services in Teton County also showed a double digit increase from the previous year level.

The lodging tax imposition in Teton County was revoked on July 1, 1995, and the city of Gillette has not had a lodging tax since July 1, 2005. The map in page 64 shows the percent change in lodging tax collections by county between fiscal years 2007 and 2008.

31-33 Manufacturing: The Manufacturing sector comprises establishments engaged in the mechanical, physical, or chemical transformation of materials, substances, or components into new products. The assembling of component parts of manufactured products is considered manufacturing, except in cases where the activity is appropriately classified in Sector 23, Construction.

The merchandise described in this sector includes the outputs of agriculture, mining, manufacturing, and certain information industries, such as publishing.

44-45 Retail Trade: The Retail Trade sector comprises establishments engaged in retailing merchandise, generally without transformation, and rendering services incidental to the sale of merchandise. The retailing process is the final step in the distribution of merchandise; retailers are, therefore, organized to sell merchandise in small quantities to the general public. This sector comprises two main types of retailers: store and nonstore retailers.

48-49 Transportation and Warehousing: The Transportation and Warehousing sector includes industries providing transportation of passengers and cargo, warehousing and storage for goods, scenic and sightseeing transportation, and support activities related to modes of transportation. Establishments in these industries use transportation equipment or transportation related facilities as a productive asset. The type of equipment depends on the mode of transportation. The modes of transportation are air, rail, water, road, and pipeline.

51 Information: The Information sector comprises establishments engaged in the following processes: (a) producing and distributing information and cultural products, (b) providing the means to transmit or distribute these products as well as data or communications, and (c) processing data.

54 Professional, Scientific, and Technical Services: The Professional, Scientific, and Technical Services sector comprises establishments that specialize in performing professional, scientific, and technical activities for others. These activities require a high degree of expertise and training. The sector includes both health care and social assistance because it is sometimes difficult to distinguish between the boundaries of these two activities. The industries in this sector are arranged on a continuum starting with those establishments providing medical care exclusively, continuing with those providing health care and social assistance, and finally finishing with those providing only social assistance. The services provided by establishments in this sector are delivered by trained professionals. All industries in the sector share this commonality of process, namely, labor inputs of health practitioners or social workers with the requisite expertise. These agencies also set policy, create laws, adjudicate civil and criminal legal cases, provide for public safety and for national defense. In general, government establishments in the Public Administration sector oversee governmental programs and activities that are not performed by private establishments. Establishments in this sector typically are engaged in the organization and financing of the production of public goods and services, most of which are provided for free or at prices that are not economically significant.
